The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

To his Excellency FRANCIS SEYMOUR, Earl of Hertford, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland,

The MEMORIAL of the MERCHANTS and TRADERS of the City of LONDONDERRY.

WE, the merchants and traders of the city of Londonderry, alarmed with the juſteſt apprehenſions for the trade of this kingdom in general, and of our city in particular, preſume to addreſs your Excellency on a ſubject which cannot be indifferent to a perſonage, who, in every character, eſpecially in that of our chief governor, has diſtinguiſhed himſelf as the friend of Ireland. By an act, paſſed 12th Car. 2d. as well as by ſeveral ſubſequent ſtatutes now in force, the exportation of certain enumerated goods from America to Ireland, has been prohibited, but at the ſame time the exportation of ſeveral important neceſſary articles, viz. flax-ſeed, wheat, flour, rum, oil, iron, lumber, &c. has been permitted: By the 35th ſection of an act, made in the laſt ſeſſion of the Britiſh parliament, the exportation of any ſpecies of goods from America to any port in Europe to the northward of Cape-Finiſterre, is prohibited, unleſs bond be given that the ſame ſhall be landed in Great-Britain.

We humbly conceive, that even the temporary execution of this act muſt have the moſt pernicious conſequences, and that if it be not ſpeedily repealed, it muſt ruin and cruſh the trade of this kingdom: For hereby the linen manufacture, the great and ſtaple commodity of this country, muſt ſuffer unavoidable inconveniences; the American flax-ſeed being neceſſary to the very exiſtence, and the lumber to make the utenſils for the progreſs, of the manufacture; our proviſion trade muſt be neceſſarily obſtructed and injured; many other objections to this meaſure might be inſiſted on, were it needful to remind your Excellency of what you ſo well underſtand, and ſo carefully cheriſh, the commercial intereſts of this country. We beg leave, however, to mention one other inconvenience, which is, that in caſe of a famine or ſcarcity of proviſions in this country, the important and neceſſary relief which we might receive from the importation of American wheat and flour, will be rendered unavailing, by the delay occaſioned by this act. This is an inconvenience which cannot be overlooked by your Excellency, whoſe peculiar praiſe and honour it is, to have humanely felt for, and, ſo far as human means could effect it, wiſely provided againſt the dreaded appearance of ſcarcity in this country. We apprehend that the enforcing of this meaſure will, in the event, prove prejudicial to the commercial intereſts of Great-Britain; as the proceeds of the goods imported into this kingdom, on account of the Americans, are in great part remitted for the payment of the Engliſh manufactures, and therefore the effects of too ſevere reſtrictions on our American trade, muſt be remotely felt in England. When we conſider that this meaſure was enacted in a ſeſſion, eminently diſtinguiſhed by the wiſdom and juſtice of its laws, we cannot ſuſpect the leaſt deſign of injuring the commerce of this kingdom; but we are inclined to believe, that through inattention Ireland was omitted in the words of the act. This we are informed was the caſe in the lumber act, for the repealing of which, upon perceiving the miſtake, our late Viceroy uſed ſo ſtrenuous and ſucceſsful endeavours. Rejoicing therefore, at being placed under the immediate protection of a governor, diſtinguiſhed for his attention to the intereſt of this nation, we humbly pray and requeſt your Excellency's interpoſition in the Britiſh parliament on our behalf, in order to obtain a repeal of ſo much of the above-mentioned act as may injure or obſtruct our American trade. Your Excellency will permit us to add, that as the act is to be in force from the firſt of January next, and as the time for loading flax-ſeed at New-York, a very principal mart for that commodity, is from the beginning of January to the beginning of March, it would be impoſſible for ſhips to enter, diſcharge and re-load, in any part of Britain, before the ſeaſon for ſowing flax-ſeed ſhould be elapſed, we beg leave therefore to ſubmit it to your Excellency's conſideration, whether ſome temporary relaxation of this act might not be obtained, in order to ſave the ſtaple manufacture of this Country from impending ruin. Whether this is to be done by directions from the proper board to the American officers, not to require the bonds, or by aſſurances to the merchants that they will not be proſecuted, or whether it can be done in any manner, your Excellency can beſt determine.

We have had too frequent cauſes to lament the want of a commercial agent reſident in London, who might make timely repreſentations of our ſituation and commercial intereſts to your Excellency, and thoſe members of the Britiſh parliament, who would protect the intereſt of this nation.

Your Excellency will permit us to embrace this occaſion, of expreſſing the deep and grateful ſenſe we entertain of the wiſdom, juſtice, and clemency of your adminiſtration.---An adminiſtration that muſt endear your Excellency to this country, ſo long as the moſt eminent virtue ſhall be reſpected, and the greateſt ſervices ſhall be remembered by us. That it may be long, as it has been illuſtrious, is the ſincere wiſh, and ardent hope of your memorialiſts.

☞ The above-mentioned act of parliament, prohibiting the exportation of any kind of goods from America to Ireland, or any other place, to the northward of Cape-Finiſterre, except to Great-Britain, takes place the firſt day of next January; therefore, thoſe perſons who have any produce (eſpecially flax-ſeed) to diſpoſe of, will find it very neceſſary to bring it early to market, as the demand for goods for Ireland, will entirely ceaſe as ſoon as the froſt ſets in.

By Captain Chancellor, from London, Captain Keith, from Briſtol, and ſeveral Veſſels, in ſhort Paſſages from Ireland, we have the following Advices, viz.

St. JAMES's, Auguſt 9.

THE following addreſs of the Governor and Council of the province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent, and Suſſex, on Delaware, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Thomas and Richard Penn, Eſquires, being introduced by the Earl of Shelburne, one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State: Which addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt excellent MAJESTY.

The addreſs of the Governor and Council of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent, and Suſſex, on Delaware.

WE your Majeſty's faithful ſubjects, the Governor and Council of the province and counties aforeſaid, with the moſt profound ſubmiſſion, beg leave to approach the throne on an occaſion the moſt affecting and intereſting to us and all your other American ſubjects.

Permit us, Royal Sir, with hearts overflowing with gratitude, humbly to acknowledge the manifold inſtances of your paternal tenderneſs and affection extended to your ſubjects in this diſtant part of your empire; and, in a more eſpecial manner, to expreſs our lively ſenſe of your Majeſty's unbounded goodneſs, and the diſintereſted benevolence of your parliament, in the late repeal of the act impoſing certain ſtamp duties in your colonies.

We rejoice in this opportunity of declaring, that your Majeſty's adminiſtration hath been diſtinguiſhed by the ſtricteſt regard to juſtice, and an unwearied attention to the welfare and happineſs of your people; but when we reflect on this laſt ſignal inſtance of your Majeſty's exalted virtue, that you have been graciouſly pleaſed to hearken to the cries of your ſubjects, and to ſtretch forth your Royal hand to their relief, notwithſtanding many of them (blinded by a miſguided zeal) have committed acts injurious to your government, we are impreſſed with the higheſt reverence for your great magnanimity and princely condeſcenſion.

We truſt that your Majeſty cannot fail to receive the warmeſt returns of gratitude and loyalty from all your ſubjects. For ourſelves, we humbly beſeech your Majeſty to accept of our unfeigned aſſurances, that our hearts are firmly attached to your ſacred perſon and government, our affection to our mother country inviolable, and our lives and fortunes entirely devoted to your Majeſty's ſervice."

St. James's, Auguſt 13. The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint the Right Hon. John Manners, commonly called Marquis of Granby, Lieutenant General of his Majeſty's forces, to be Commander in Chief of all and ſingular his Majeſty's Land Forces employed, or to be employed, in his Majeſty's ſervice, within the kingdom of Great-Britain.

Whitehall, Aug. 16. The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Samuel Mead, Edward Hooper, Henry Pelham, John Frederick, Henry Bankes, Eſqrs; Sir William Muſgrave, Baronet, Joſeph Pennington, Corbyn Morris, and James Jeffreys, Eſqrs; to be Commiſſioners for levying and collecting his Majeſty's duties and cuſtoms in that part of Great-Britain called England, the dominion of Wales, and town of Berwick upon Tweed.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint the Right Hon. Wills Earl of Hillſborough, of the Kingdom of Ireland, Soame Jenyns, Edward Elliot, George Rice, John Roberts, Jeremiah Dyſon, and William Fitzherbert, Eſqrs; and the Right Hon. Henry Viſcount Palmerſton, of the Kingdom of Ireland, to be his Majeſty's Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations.

Whitehall, Aug. 19. The King has been pleaſed to grant unto the Right Hon. Frederick North, commonly called Lord North, and George Cook, Eſq; the office of Receiver and Paymaſter General of all his Majeſty's Guards, Garriſons, and Land Forces, (thoſe employed, or to be employed, by his Majeſty for the ſervice in Ireland, the Marine Regiments, and ſuch Regiments or Forces as are, or ſhall be, under the care and direction of the High Admiral of Great Britain, or Commiſſioners of the Admiralty for the time being, always excepted) in the room of the Right Hon. Charles Townſhend.

Whitehall, September 6. The King has been pleaſed to grant unto George Thomas, of Yapton Place, in Suſſex, Eſq; Captain General, and Governor in Chief, of his Majeſty's Leeward Iſlands in America, and to his heirs male, the dignity of a Baronet of the kingdom of Great-Britain.

St. James's, September 9. The King has been pleaſed to grant unto the Right Hon. John Viſcount Ligonier, of the Kingdom of Ireland, and Lord Ligonier, Baron of Ripley, in the county of Surry, in the Kingdom of Great-Britain, and the heirs male of his body, lawfully begotten, the dignity of an Earl of the Kingdom of Great-Britain, by the name, ſtile and title of Earl Ligonier.

LONDON.

Auguſt 14. His Excellency Prince Maſſerano, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, had Yeſterday a Conference of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, ſaid to be on the Subject of adjuſting our national Differences with the Court of Madrid.

We hear Orders will ſoon be iſſued for raiſing a Regiment of Highlanders for American Service.

We are told, that there has been tranſmitted from Senegal, ſuch a Detail of Infractions, which private French Traders have been guilty of, contrary to Treaty, in that Part of the World, as will occaſion proper Remonſtrances to be forthwith made to the Court of Verſailles.

Aug. 19. The Fubbs yacht is ordered to be ready at an hour's notice, to bring over the Prince of Orange, as are likewiſe the convoys which are to accompany the above yacht.

It is ſaid that Sir Edward Hawke will be appointed firſt Lord of the Admiralty, in the room of Lord Egmont.

Different accounts from Spain inform, that there never was known greater expedition made in the ſeveral ſea ports of that kingdom, in building and fitting out ſhips of war, than at preſent.

The general toaſt in the city now is, May the Earl of Chatham retain the integrity of Mr. Pitt.

Auguſt 21. Both houſes of parliament, it is thought, will meet in November next, for the diſpatch of buſineſs, that the ſeſſion may end in March, or beginning of April, ſo as to allow the members to have full time to meet their conſtituents before the general election, which will be in May next.

Some letters from Hanover inform, that an army of 25,000 men was to be kept up in that electorate.

They write from Algiers, that the Dey had cauſed it to be notified to the Conſuls of the ſeveral chriſtian powers with whom he is at peace, that care be taken to uſe on board their reſpective merchantmen no counterfeit paſſes, or ſell their own to others; in either of which caſes he has declared, that the ſhips ſhall not only be ſeized, and their crews ſent to ſlavery, but he will look upon it as an abſolute breach of the treaties ſubſiſting between them and the regency.

Auguſt 23. Parties were never known to run ſo high at the court end of the town ſince the time of the rebellion: They will admit of no neutrality; and a man muſt give up one part of his acquaintance, to be upon good terms with the other. The Preſs groans under the load of ſcurrilous pamphlets. The good of our country is loſt in perſonal invectives.

It is very certain that there have been ſome diſagreements among the new adminiſtration.

It is reported, that a formidable fleet of ſhips of war, will ſhortly rendezvous at Spithead.

They write from Hambourg, that couriers are perpetually paſſing and repaſſing through that place, in their route from Copenhagen, Stockholm, Paris, and London.

Auguſt 26. We are credibly informed, that a great perſonage was lately heard pathetically to lament the fluctuating ſtate of the Britiſh miniſtry, obſerving at the ſame time, that ſuch inſtability of councils contributes greatly to leſſen any ſtate in the eyes of all Europe.

Sunday the Earl of Egmont, Sir Charles Saunders, and Admiral Keppel, were at court; and, it is ſaid, they will be reinſtated in their former poſts.

It has been within theſe few days reported in the city, that the Dutch are tranſporting immenſe quantities of naval and other ſtores to their iſlands of Coracoa and St. Euſtatia, in the Weſt-Indies, as they were known to have done on a former occaſion, previous to the breaking out of the laſt French war.

We hear from Portſmouth, that it is rumoured there that a conſiderable naval force will ſoon ſail from thence for America, part of which is to join Commodore Palliſer on the banks of Newfoundland.

The recruits now raiſing in the electorate of Hanover, intended for the Britiſh American colonies, it is ſaid, are to be compleated to ten thouſand men.

Auguſt 28. The laſt Amſterdam gazette, under the head London, Auguſt 15, ſays, "His Majeſty very frequently confers in private with the Earl of Chatham, who, a prey to ſatires, bears but impatiently the effects of the extravagant prejudices which the people have imbibed on his elevation. There is actually forming againſt him a powerful party to counteract his deſigns in the cabinet and in parliament. Such is the mode of thinking, ſuch the inconſtancy of the nation, that he, whom to-day it regards as its ſupport, is to-morrow conſidered as the oppoſer of its intereſts."

Orders are ſaid to be iſſued from the war office, for a great number of recruits to be raiſed with expedition, to compleat the regiments of foot ſtationed in North-America.

We hear that a certain republic will ſhortly augment their marine, being very much afraid of a neighbouring nation.

It is ſaid that the miniſter of a certain power will ſoon ſet out on his return home.

Auguſt 30. They write from Paris, that an order is gone over to the Weſt-Indies, for rendering the French iſland of St. Lucia a free port, in hopes of drawing thither part of the Spaniſh trade.

A plan of Lord Chatham's, for uniting the colonies with the mother country, will certainly next ſeſſions be laid before both houſes of parliament.

September 3. It is ſaid a very ſtrong Memorial has been forwarded, in order to be preſented, by his Majeſty's Ambaſſador, to the Court of Madrid.

Yeſterday morning his Excellency Prince Mazerano, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, received diſpatches at his houſe in Great Ormond-ſtreet, ſaid to be of importance, from the Court of Madrid.

We are poſitively aſſured, that ſeveral Portugal Merchants have been ſummoned to attend this morning on the Board of Trade; it being determined to procure a removal of all the grievances from which our trade and traders are made to ſuffer in that kingdom; they have for an age paſt, from encroachments on one ſide, and negligence on the other, been introducing and increaſing to ſo enormous a degree as now to become intolerable; while they have diminiſhed our commerce with that kingdom, ſo as to make the balance of trade become greatly inſignificant, and even in danger of turning againſt us.---But the effectual correction of theſe abuſes being now voluntarily undertaken by the preſent Adminiſtration, it may be expected the good work will be heartily engaged in, and ſuch happy effects reſult from their generous endeavours, as will, with their many other laudable purſuits, ſoon ſilence the voice of Faction, Scandal, and Malevolence.

September 4. Yeſterday there was a Levee at St. James's; and alſo a Privy-Council, on affairs relating to the army.

Yeſterday the Right Hon. the Earl of Macclesfield was at the Levee at St. James's. It is ſaid his Lordſhip will ſoon be appointed to act in a publick character.

Copies of all the commercial treaties, at preſent ſubſiſting between England and Portugal, are now making out, in order to be laid before a ſuperior Board.

September 5. Wedneſday morning a meſſenger arrived at St. James's, with diſpatches from Lord George Lenox, at the court of France.

Wedneſday M. de Mello de Caſtro, Envoy Extraordinary from the court of Portugal, had a conference with his Majeſty's Secretaries of State, ſaid to be on matters relative to the trade and commerce of the two crowns.

Yeſterday the Earl of Briſtol kiſſed his Majeſty's hand on being appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

It is ſaid that diſpatches of an intereſting nature were received by the laſt Liſbon packet, from the Hon. Henry Faulkland, Eſq; his Majeſty's Conſul General at Oporto.

In caſe of obtaining from the Court of Liſbon their ſtrict adherence to commercial treaties, it has been computed that Great Britain will have at leaſt in her favour an annual ballance of 100,000 l. ſterling, more than at preſent, by the trade to Portugal.

Sept. 6. Yeſterday at noon there was a numerous Levee at St. James's, and afterwards a Cabinet Council, on affairs of importance.

In conſequence of the late enquiry into our commercial grievances from Portugal, it has been diſcovered that the Britiſh Merchants trading to that kingdom, have been actual ſufferers to the amount of 200,000 l. ſterling and upwards, by an illegal exaction of duties on their merchandize, contrary to treaties during the laſt twenty years.

Private letters from the Hague mention, that England has lately made out a claim to an extenſive tract of land, which the Dutch have comprehended within the colony of the Berbices, in America, for many years. And it is ſaid that Admiral Parry has orders to execute a commiſſion to the Dutch Governor of Surrinam.

September 9. Yeſterday the Earl of Chatham was ſo well recovered as to ride out for the benefit of the air.

We hear that the Parliament will meet for the diſpatch of buſineſs on the fourth of November next.

It is ſaid, the Colony Agents intend to petition, that in future trials in American Vice-Admiralty Courts, no ſubject of his Majeſty may be obliged to attend the ſummons of any other court but that of his own province.

It is ſaid, that the neceſſity of having triennial parliaments, will be ſtrongly enforced in the Houſe of Commons next meeting.

We hear that the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, attentive to the concerns of his Fellow Subjects, has written letters to the ſeveral great Officers of State, informing them of the ſcarcity, which in his opinion is likely to happen, if ſomething be not ſoon done to prevent ſo much Corn being carried out of the kingdom, as the old ſtocks of Wheat are pretty near exhauſted, and the new Wheat, through the exceſſive rains, has run into ſtraw, and is much lighter in the ear than it has been for ſome years paſt.

It is ſaid, that if an embargo is not immediately laid, the greateſt part of this year's harveſt will be out of the kingdom before a fortnight is at an end.

We are informed, there was a majority, in the late council held at the Cockpit, Whitehall, for ſhutting up the ports againſt the exportation of corn.

We hear likewiſe that there will be an embargo laid on all veſſels already loaden, and that the corn will be relanded.

September 11. We hear that Admiral Keppel is to have the command of the yachts which are to carry and convey her Royal Highneſs Princeſs Caroline Matilda to Denmark.

We hear, in conſequence of the late reſolution for the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland's reſidence in that kingdom, the office of Lords Juſtices will be totally aboliſhed.

A Committee of Merchants trading to Portugal will this week attend the levee of one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, on affairs of great importance.

Yeſterday Sir George Yonge, Bart. kiſſed his Majeſty's hand, on being appointed one of the Lords of the Admiralty.

As did Iſaac Barre, Eſq; Member for Wycomb, in Bucks, on being appointed one of the Vice-Treaſurers of Ireland, in the room of Lord George Sackville.

Yeſterday morning Count de Malzahn, the Pruſſian Ambaſſador, had a conference with the Miniſtry on the ſubject of ſome diſpatches, ſaid to be of importance, from the Court of Berlin.

We have advice from Liſbon, that by the new treaty of commerce with England, the manufactures of Great-Britain would be exported on board the regiſter-ſhips for the Bahias, St. Salvador, Rio de Janeiro, and the other Portugueſe Settlements in South-America, hitherto principally ſupplied by the French, Dutch, and Genoeſe.

On Tueſday the Rainbow man of War from Virginia arrived at Portſmouth.

The Parliament, which ſtood prorogued to the 16th inſtant, is, by Proclamation, further prorogued to the 11th of November next, then to ſit for the diſpatch of divers weighty and important affairs.

Letters from Paris obſerve, that the new Britiſh Miniſtry ſeem no way to concern themſelves about the fate of Mr. Wilkes, who continues to reſide in that city, and enjoys very good health.

Letters from Leghorn ſay, that the crops of corn in the ſouthern parts of Italy, Sicily excepted, and alſo in the Roman State and Tuſcany, have been almoſt ruined, ſo that in the latter place there is only corn for the month of October. They add, that their chief dependance is on Old England.

The concern and diſſatisfacton appears exceſſive in the public mind, at not finding in laſt Tueſday's gazette, a renewal of the prohibition of the exportation of corn, &c.

We are told by letters from Edinburgh, that the magiſtrates of that city, and ſeveral others, are preparing petitions to be laid before the Privy Council, for putting a ſtop to the exportation of grain from that kingdom.

The Grand Duke of Tuſcany, in order to encourage the importation of corn, and provide for the wants of his ſubjects, has taken off all duties of entry upon grain brought into his dominions.

A proclamation is iſſued for putting the laws againſt foreſtaling, regrating, and engroſſing of corn, into ſpeedy execution.

It was on Monday confidently reported, that the opinion, lately ſent in writing by the E. of C. to council, ſtrongly recommended the putting an immediate ſtop to the exportation of corn; which report occaſioned no ſmall confuſion in Mark-lane.

It is reported, that endeavours will be uſed with the Portugueſe Miniſtry, for leave to carry on a trade from England and her colonies to the Brazils.

September 15. Friday the Earl of Shelburne, and ſome others of the great officers of ſtate, paid a viſit to Lord Chatham at Hampſtead.

We hear that ſome diſpatches of great importance were received on Friday from his excellency Sir Joſeph Yorke at the Hague.

The Dutch are reported to be putting ſeveral capital ſhips of war into commiſſion, and raiſing marines in all their ſea-ports.

September 16. This day both houſes of parliament will meet at Weſtminſter, purſuant to their laſt prorogation.

A copy of the articles propoſed by France, for effecting an accommodation between the Corſicans and Genoeſe, has been tranſmitted here by one of his Majeſty's foreign conſuls, ſaid to be of ſome importance to our trade in the Mediterranean.

Some folks, who are not eaſily wrought upon by vague reports, do think, that things are ſo far from being firmly ſettled in the ſeveral departments of national buſineſs, as to admit of great changes very unexpectedly.

Divers gentlemen have lately gone over to New-York, and other provinces in North-America, to claim lands given their predeceſſors almoſt a century ago. On the eſtate of one gentleman, 'tis ſaid, Elizabeth-town is built, which will now turn out of great value to him.---It is probable this may give the American lawyers ſome buſineſs.

Yeſterday arrived here Captain Buckmore, from St. Chriſtophers, by whom we received the following melancholy Advices.

BASSETERRE (in St. Chriſtophers) October 8.

Monday night laſt, about 10 o'clock, a great ſurff, with a briſk gale of wind from the S. E. began, in which nine or ten veſſels were drove aſhore on the beach, and wrecked, ſome houſes, fences, trees, &c. in town, are damaged. We have had no news yet from the country, and greatly fear the miſchief done there is conſiderable, as the wind continues blowing hard. The following are the veſſels loſt, as we hear, a ſchooner belonging to Mr. Wattley, Capt. Farrell; a ſloop belonging to Mr. Satterthwaite, Capt. Simms; brig George, Capt. Gregory, and a ſchooner, Capt. Duncan, from Philadelphia; a ſloop from the windward Iſlands; the ſloop Batchelor, Captain Yard, belonging to Mr. Priddie; Captain Boyd's ſchooner; Capt. From Sandy-Point we hear, that a ſloop was drove aſhore there, and loſt; and that a ſchooner put to ſea from thence, when the ſtorm began, with only two hands on board, and has not ſince been heard of.

From different parts of the iſland we have accounts of great damage being done to the cane pieces, roads, &c. by the late bad weather.

A Gentleman writes from St. Chriſtophers, October 11, that a Veſſel was juſt arrived from St. Euſtatia, the firſt ſince the Gale of Wind, the Captain of which informed of the Loſs of a Number of Veſſels there (ſaid to be 14 Sail) and that he met three or four Veſſels at Sea diſmaſted; from which it was imagined the Gale had been general throughout the Iſlands.

Captain Brewer, in a Sloop belonging here, put out to Sea from St. Chriſtophers; and Captain Tolbert, in a Brig of this Place, rode out the Gale there.-----Captain Baldwin, in a New-York Brig, by cutting away his Mainmaſt, rode it out at St. Euſtatia.

Yeſterday arrived here two Ships, Captains Taylor and Slater, and a Schooner, from London; a Ship and Snow, Captains Johnſon and Wilſon, from Liverpool; a Ship from Londonderry, Captain Caldwell; and a Ship from Waterford, Captain Allen.

The marriage of the Prince of Orange with the Princeſs Louiſa Anne, is now ſaid to be fixed for the 25th of October (his Majeſty's acceſſion to the throne) at the Dutch chapel at St. James's.

They write from Peterſburgh, that her imperial Majeſty, by the next ſpring, will have a fleet of thirty-four men of war of the line, beſides frigates, bomb-veſſels, &c.

Letters from Leghorn, dated Auguſt 4, ſay, "At the time that we expected to learn from Corſica the reſult of the general aſſembly of that nation, which was held in order to give France an anſwer ſhe required from the malecontents, we have received advice, that they are treating about an accommodation with the Republic of Genoa, and that M. de Marbœuf, Commandant of the French troops, was in cloſe correſpondence with General Paoli for that purpoſe.

The Directors of the French Eaſt-India company called lately a general court, wherein they laid their accounts before the Proprietors; and they reckon they ſhall be worth 27 millions after the next ſale; but at the ſame time acknowledge their debts to amount to upwards of five millions.

The Fair American, Minſhall, from Parkgate to South-Carolina, was drove aſhore at Parkgate, on Sunday Night laſt, in the high wind.

September 4. The Right Hon. Lord Chatham, we hear, has propoſed a ſcheme to raiſe one million one hundred and fifty thouſand pounds ſterling, excluſive of what may be wanted for the ſervice of the enſuing year.

This week the Indian Chiefs will attend the Board of Trade, by deſire of the Commiſſioners, to enquire into the nature of their complaints againſt the Dutch Settlers of Albany and New York province.

The laſt letters from Vienna mention, that the Turks were filing off detachments from the Garriſons of Belgrade, Chockzin, &c. in order to march into the interior provinces, to make head againſt the Georgians.

At the deſire of the principal Merchants and Manufacturers of Mancheſter, Edward Byrom, Eſq; and ſome other gentlemen, lately waited on the Marquis of Rockingham at York, with an addreſs to expreſs their grateful ſenſe of his Lordſhip's public conduct during his ſhort adminiſtration; to which his Lordſhip returned a very polite anſwer.

September 5.

The New Induſtry, Capt. Duncan, and the Juſtitia, Capt. Somerſell, the ſhips that have the Tranſports on board for Maryland, lie off Blackwall, on purpoſe to receive the Tranſport Felons on board that may be convicted this Seſſion at the Old Bailey.

A ſmall chaiſe, of the moſt curious workmanſhip, has been lately made for the uſe of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, in Richmond-gardens, which is drawn by one of the beautiful little horſes lately arrived from the Eaſt-Indies.

September 6. By a gentleman who came over in the laſt packet from Holland, we learn, that the preſent diſpute about Surrinam makes a great noiſe there; and they are afraid the ſame may be productive of fatal conſequences to the Republick.

It is ſtill undeniable, notwithſtanding any thing that has yet been ſaid to the contrary, that there is a moſt perfect underſtanding between Lord Chatham and his Sovereign; and that his M-- is determined to ſupport his Lordſhip's meaſures, which is all the public want; for while a good and gracious King, univerſally beloved by his ſubjects, will ſupport and countenance the meaſures of a Miniſter who has given ſuch extraordinary proofs of his ſhining abilities, and whoſe popularity has been ſo great, and now only lies covered with embers to blaze the more: When ſuch is the ſituation of a Miniſter, he may defy the cabals of any faction whatever that may be formed againſt him; for the people will, at all events, ſupport their Sovereign and his Miniſter, whenever their acts are for the general good of the nation; and this the public will have ample reaſon to be convinced of before Lady-day next.

We are informed that his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter (when he lately landed in France) made an excurſion incog. as far as Paris, accompanied with Col. Ligonier, and attended by two ſervants only. There was a review, at which his Royal Highneſs was preſent, and afterwards Col. Ligonier and his friend (in thoſe very terms) were invited to take a repaſt in a tent ſet apart for the Engliſh nobility and gentry, but the invitation was declined being accepted of. His Royal Highneſs was now (though not publickly) known, and (as he choſe to remain incog.) ſome game, rare and delicious fruits and wines, were ſent by order of the French King to his Royal Highneſs's hotel. The next morning a Chevalier waited on Col. Ligonier, from his Majeſty, with an offer of two fine horſes to carry his Royal Highneſs and him to a grand review at Compeigne, but as the circumſtances of being publickly known was by no means agreeable, the compliment was handſomely refuſed, and his Royal Highneſs preſently after ſet out on his return. They were alſo at one of the theatres the evening of their arrival at Paris.

Hampſtead is now become the ſeat of politicks; meetings of the principal officers of ſtate, to confer with Lord Chatham, being held there every day.

Edinburgh, Sept. 6. Sir George Lockhart, Bart. ſtill continues not only to ſell his farm-meal to poor houſholders at a price greatly below the preſent price of meal in that part of the country, but alſo to cauſe to be diſtributed weekly, a quantity of oatmeal to the poor people in his neighbourhood, gratis.

Glouceſter, Sept. 8. We are told in letters from Birmingham, that Thurſday ſe'nnight the mob went into the market, and took all butter baſkets from the country people, who had raiſed the price of that neceſſary to 10d. per pound, and ſold the ſame for 7d. the money for which they returned to the uttermoſt farthing; after this they aſſured the country people, that they would purſue the ſame meaſures every market-day, unleſs they would conform to the above reaſonable price, which they have ſince complied with. The people of Stourbridge, we hear, have proceeded in a ſimilar manner.

LONDON.

Sept. 9. We are deſired to aſſure the public, from undoubted authority, that the ſalary to Lord Chatham, as Lord Privy Seal, is three thouſand pounds a year; the ſame as his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, and Lord Temple, enjoyed, when they held that office. And that the public were miſinformed with reſpect to the additional ſalary of a thouſand a year.

We are aſſured that one of the patriotic ſchemes of a great perſonage, lately advanced to the peerage, will be to introduce an equal land tax; a deſign often attempted, but in vain. This ſcheme, which it is imagined will take place, will bring in more money to the government at 2s. per pound, than at preſent at 4s. in the pound.

Wherever political converſation is introduced, it is now remarked by the moſt judicious, that the candid part of the company declare for ſuſpending all judgment of the gentlemen now in power, till the ſeaſon ſhall come in which their conduct will enable the public to judge with certainty of their merits; and in the mean time they deliver it as their opinion, that we ſhould all hope for the beſt; while the partial appear waſpiſh and fretful, ſay peeviſh and ſpiteful things, and therein diſcover their very ſtrong apprehenſions of having their own ſelfiſh views diſconcerted, by a dreaded popularity which the miniſtry may acquire from demonſtrated wiſdom and virtue, to the effectual diſabling of cabal and intrigue, the only foundations on which factious power can become erected, for controuling their Sovereign, and plundering the community.

Sept. 11. His Majeſty has appointed the Right Hon. John Earl of Egmont, and Lord Holland of Somerſetſhire, to be Vice Admiral of the ſaid county.

It is ſaid, that notwithſtanding the preſent ungrateful clamours againſt Lord C------, he will ſhortly prove himſelf the Poor's beſt Friend, being determined to uſe his endeavours to procure a prohibition of the exportation of corn, and alſo to promote ſeveral ſalutary laws for their benefit, next ſeſſions of Parliament, particularly with reſpect to proviſions, and the additional tax upon beer.

Some letters from the Hague ſay, that the Dutch Eaſt-India Company have lately received ſome diſagreeable advices over land, reſpecting their ſettlements in Aſia.

There happened laſt week, at Ketton, in the county of Rutland, a very remarkable inſtance of the Divine diſpleaſure.---A ſhepherd folding his flock, obſerved ſeveral ſtruck with the flies (a circumſtance that often happens to ſheep at this time of the year) and finding it very difficult to clear the ſheep of them, began, in a moſt reprobate and blaſphemous manner, to curſe not only the flies, but their maker. He was immediately ſtruck with them on the arm, carried home, and languiſhed from Saturday till Monday, and then expired in the greateſt agonies. His wife, during this time, ſat by him, and uſed every means to keep the flies off him, but in vain; and the maggots came out of his mouth, noſe, and ears; when he died his body was ſo very offenſive the family could not bear it.

Some letters from Leghorn ſay, that the Senate of Genoa ſeemed inclinable to acknowledge Paſchal de Paoli, in the Character of Viceroy of Corſica, provided the malcontents would ſubmit to the terms propoſed by France for an accommodation with the Republick.

Yeſterday diſpatches of importance were ſent off from the Secretary of State's office, for his Excellency Sir Andrew Mitchell, his Majeſty's Ambaſſador at the Court of Berlin.

It is ſaid a plan is forming, and will be laid before Parliament next ſeſſions, for erecting magazines for the reception of corn in two or three principal towns of each county in England, to be purchaſed when grain is cheap, and delivered out to the poor in times of ſcarcity, at a moderate price.

By the laſt letters from Senegal, the French appear to have dropt all their late ſchemes of encroachment on the African coaſt, now carrying on trade very peaceably, and confining themſelves to their own ſettlements.

September 13.

We hear, that among the many other patriotic ſchemes of the Right Hon. the new created Peer, one of them, ſoon after the meeting of a Great Aſſembly, will be to take away, entirely, the bounty for the exportation of corn.

The Earl of Chatham has had a relapſe, occaſioned by catching cold on Tueſday laſt, and was yeſterday very ill.

We are told that no embargo can be laid on the exportation of corn, without a general embargo.

We are aſſured, that the preſent Tour of Europe, now taking by a certain great Prince, is entirely from political motives, whatever reaſons may have been aſſigned to the contrary.

A morning-paper ſays, that a great perſon, at the head of a very reſpectable department, has been reprimanded for confiding with his private ſecretary ſome diſpatches of high importance, and that a reſolution has been unanimouſly taken by thoſe in power, not to entruſt, for the future, their ſecretaries in any caſes of the like nature.

We are informed, by ſome late advices from Paris, that Mr. Wilkes has had an offer of being Colonel of one of the Iriſh Brigades in the ſervice of France, which he refuſed.

The Indian Chiefs having finiſhed their buſineſs here, will embark in a few days for New-York.

A Board of Treaſury, we hear, is ſpeedily to be called to conſider on the expediency of granting a temporary exemption from duties, to the unfortunate town of Bridge-Town in Barbados.

It is ſaid an embargo is laid upon the corn ſhips intended for exportation.

We hear that ſome diſpatches of great importance were received yeſterday from his Excellency Sir Joſeph Yorke, at the Hague.

We are told that frequent conferences continue to be held between the Portugueſe Envoy and our Miniſtry, touching the new regulation of commerce between the two crowns; and yeſterday Mr. de Mello received a freſh packet from Liſbon, ſaid to be favourable towards this point.

The report of the continual reſidence of Lord Lieutenants in Ireland, being reſolved on, and the office of Lords Juſtices aboliſhed, we are aſſured is without any foundation.

We are aſſured, that there are no grounds to ſupport the report of a general election next ſpring, notwithſtanding it hath been ſo aſſerted.

By Captain BLAKE, arrived in Boſton from London, we have the following Advices, viz.

LONDON, September 16.

THEY write from Senegal, that the French had abandoned their enterprize of eſtabliſhing a ſettlement at Cape Verd; their artillery and ſtores having been carried back to Goree.

Accounts ſay, that the conſpiracy againſt the life of the Dey of Algiers had been occaſioned by the pacific diſpoſition of this Prince, who ſeemed inclinable rather to ſuffer the Algerine corſairs to rot in the Harbour, than to go to war with the European powers.

September 17. By letters from Tripoly in Barbary, dated the 31ſt of July, we are informed, that the Baſhaw, having received certain advice that the Venetians were ſending a ſquadron of ſhips to bombard that city, gave orders immediately that a number of ſoldiers might be in readineſs, he being reſolved to make a vigorous defence, ſhould they offer to attack that place. All the caſtles and fortifications have been repaired, and a number of braſs cannon, from twenty-four to forty-pounders, placed thereon, particularly at the marine. Forty thouſand horſemen are encamped on the ſea-ſhore, eaſt and weſt of the city, to prevent any deſcent they may attempt to make. Orders have likewiſe been iſſued, that all the women and children retire to the country, and that no perſons remain in the city but thoſe who are able to bear arms.

It is reported that a Britiſh ſquadron will ſoon make its appearance before Corſica, to give the greater weight to the terms propoſed by England for accommodating matters between thoſe Iſlanders and the Genoeſe.

It is reported that near 100 meſſengers were diſpatched on Monday to the north end, from the nobility and gentry, to enquire after Lord Chatham's health.

Yeſterday morning the Right Hon. the Earl of Chatham was thought to be a good deal better than he has been ſince his late relapſe.

They write from Algiers, that they had no leſs than ten ſhocks of an earthquake there, two of them very violent, within ſix months paſt.

They write from Naples, that the Turkiſh Governor of the Morea, was marched at the head of ſixty thouſand troops, to check the progreſs of the rebels in Georgia.

September 18. Yeſterday the Right Hon. Lord Chatham was at court for the firſt time ſince his late indiſpoſition.

His Majeſty's ſloop of war the Lynx, is out of Dock at Debtford, and is now rigging with all expedition for her ſtation at New-York.

It is ſaid ſome late impediments, which ſtood in the way of the intended nuptials of two royal perſonages, are at length happily removed.

September 19. It is ſaid that an extraordinary board of admiralty will be held next week, at which time it is expected ſeveral more ſhips of war will be put into commiſſion for American ſervice.

They write from Madrid, that the court had received advice of the late inſurrections in Mexico and Peru having been entirely quelled; and ſeveral of the ringleaders were expected home from La Vera Cruz, in irons.

They write from Gibraltar, that the late earthquakes at Algiers have occaſioned ſeveral ſhoals to be caſt up in the ſea, near that place, which, it was apprehended, would be very prejudicial to navigation.

They write from Paris, that orders have been diſpatched to delay the embarkation of French troops at Marſeilles and Toulon, which were intended to reinforce general Marbœuf, in the iſland of Corſica.

They write from Hamburgh, that large orders have been received there, to buy up naval ſtores for the ſervice of France.

Charles-Town, South-Carolina, October 20.

All the veſſels that have arrived here this week, have met with ſuch terrible gales of wind and hurricanes, that there is reaſon to apprehend we ſhall hear of great damage done to the ſhipping in the Weſt-India ſeas.---Captain William White, of the ſhip Carolina Packet, from London, on the 24th of September, in lat. 25: 10, long. 50. W. felt the moſt violent hurricane he ever was in, which began the day before; his ſhip narrowly eſcaped foundering; and he afterwards ſpoke with a Dane from St. Croix, who told him, it was very ſevere at that iſland the 23d---Capt. William Mills, of the ſloop Betſy, from St. Kitts, met with one on the 11th inſtant, in lat. 31: 30, long. 77: 20, which laſted 24 hours; and off Georgia, on the 12th, with another, in which his ſails were all torn, and he received other damage.----Captain William Giekie, of the ſloop King George, from the Bay of Honduras, was likewiſe in one, on the 12th and 13th inſtant, in lat. 30: 37, on the coaſt of Florida: He ſuppoſes that the major part of ſeven ſail he was in company with, muſt have been put aſhore, amongſt them a ſhip called the America, from the Bay bound for New-York, which he had before ſpoke with.

By a gentleman lately arrived at Savannah in Georgia, from Cuba, we are informed, that all the brick and ſtone buildings in Bayama, Yera, and Puerto del Principe, on that iſland, were totally deſtroyed by the ſame ſhock of an earthquake that demoliſhed St. Jago, on the 11th of June; that ſome hundreds (not thouſands) of people loſt their lives therein: That a general deſertion prevailed among the Spaniſh troops, from an apprehenſion of the hard labour, and other difficulties they might be obliged to undergo, in conſequence of that dreadful calamity: And that ſhocks continued to be repeatedly felt in that iſland every day, till the 1ſt of Auguſt, the day the gentleman left it.

October 24. Between 80 and 90 Iriſh ſettlers are arrived here from Belfaſt, encouraged by the bounty given by this province, and the great ſucceſs of their countrymen at Hilliſborough townſhip.

October 27. On Wedneſday arrived here his Majeſty's pacquet-boat the Grenville, commanded by Captain John Siddall, from Penſacola, in the paſſage from whence, in lat. 23: 30, between the Matanzas and Havanna, on the 12th inſtant, at 6 o'clock in the evening, he met with a moſt ſevere ſtorm or hurricane, that continued 24 hours without abating, wherein the Grenville narrowly eſcaped foundering, having her main and fore ſails blown away at one blaſt, being water-logged, and ſhipping ſeveral ſeas, particular one abaft, which filled the cabbin, damaged the mails, and did other hurt. The ſtormy weather continued four or five days after, but not ſo violent.

The ſame day put in here, the brig Tryon, Captain Thomas Marnan, from Jamaica, bound for Cape-Fear, having met with ſeveral hard gales of wind, from the 12th to the 15th inſtant, in which ſhe received a good deal of damage in her ſails, &c. and was beſides in want of proviſions. On the 15th, Capt. Marnan took up Captain William Turner, and the crew, of the ſchooner Penſacola, of and for Philadelphia, which had then been upwards of fifty days out from the Bay of Honduras, and was in the greateſt diſtreſs imaginable, for they had had nothing to ſubſiſt on for 30 days but a biſket a day per man, and in the ſtorm on the 12th, in lat. 24, and long. 84, beſides being very leaky, the ſchooner had loſt her main-maſt and all her ſails, neither of which, or indeed proviſions, was Captain Marnan able to ſupply; he therefore brought them here. The ſame day Captain Marnan ſaw a large ſhip aſhore on Cape Florida, which he ſuppoſed to be a homeward bound Jamaica man.

The laſt letters from Weſt-Florida and New-Orleans, adviſe, that the war between the Chactah and Creek Indians continued to be carried on with the utmoſt inveteracy; that hitherto the former had loſt the moſt men; but it was thought they would in the end prove too powerful for the Creeks.----That every thing was quiet, and went on well at the Ilinois, where the trade for furrs, ſkins, &c. was great beyond conception. And that the Spaniſh governor of New-Orleans had iſſued a proclamation, forbidding any Engliſh veſſels coming thither, till they have obtained his permit to paſs the Fort at Balize, which he grants, upon the invoices of their cargoes being laid before him, and his being ſuffered to fix the prices they ſhall ſell at.

Saturday arrived here the ſloop Tryal, Francis Hickey, maſter, from Honduras, in great diſtreſs. He left the Bay the 6th of September, on the 11th ſprung his maſt in the partners, afterwards in another part, and has met with nothing but ſtormy weather during his whole paſſage: Even the day before he came in, he met with a gale of wind which forced him upon the ſhoal called the Rattle Snake, where he loſt his rudder.

Nov. 3. Saturday laſt put in here, having met with bad weather, the ſchooner Sally, Jacob White, maſter, from North-Carolina, and the ſchooner Brave-Benjamin, Phineas Ayres, maſter, from Penſacola, both bound for New-York; and the ſchooner Nancy, Alexander Mills, maſter, from Philadelphia, bound for North-Carolina.

By Captain Bachop, arrived here laſt night from St. Auguſtine, we are informed, that the ſickneſs which lately prevailed in East Florida, has entirely ceaſed; and that about three weeks ago, they had ſome ſevere gales of wind on that coaſt, in which the ſchooner Polly, of St. Auguſtine, was entirely loſt. A ſloop from New-York, one Robert Harris, maſter, with ſoldiers, was ſafe arrived there from New-York.

November 4. On Tueſday the 28th ult. the Ship Happy St. Andrew, Richard Biſſell, maſter, from Oporto for Philadelphia, was unfortunately caſt-away on the Coffin-Land-Reef, to the ſouthward of our Bar, in a hard gale of wind, and went to pieces in four hours.---The Captain imagined himſelf to be near 100 leagues from the land, having been drove off greatly to the ſouthward by the late gales of wind which we have had.---The maſter and eleven of the crew ſaved themſelves in the long-boat, among whom was Mr. Henry Nevill, a paſſenger, who has loſt a conſiderable intereſt by this misfortune; but a man named Joſeph Lambert, and Patrick Herring, a ſervant boy of the captain's, were unhappily drowned.---When the boat got to ſhore on the Coffin-Land-Iſland, the captain and crew luckily met with Meſſrs. Henry and Samuel Samways, who give them all the aſſiſtance in their power, and by whoſe means they were enabled to proceed for town, where they arrived on Thurſday evening laſt.

BOSTON, November 6.

We hear from Dedham, that laſt Sunday Mr. Hezekiah Allen, of that Town, had a Child baptiſed by the Name of WILLIAM PITT.

Yeſterday being the 5th of November, ever memorable on Account of the Diſcovery of the Gun-Powder Plot, the ſame was obſerved here by a Diſcharge of Cannon from the Ramparts at the Caſtle, and likewiſe from the South, North, and Charleſtown Batteries.---The Populace, to ſhew their Deteſtation of Slavery, to divert themſelves, and pleaſe the Inhabitants, erected a Number of Stages, whereon they exhibited to public View a Variety of very droll as well as ridiculous Effigies, which, however, are ſuppoſed to come as near the Originals as Diſtance and their Knowledge of them would permit---Thinking our Deliverance from the Stamp-Act ſomewhat analogous in its Conſequences to the Eſcape from the Popiſh Plot, it was thought neceſſary by the Conductors of the Pageantry, to increaſe the Pope's Retinue, by adding thereunto in Effigy, a Number of the Friends of Slavery and arbitary Power, and in particular ſome of the Advocates for the late Stamp-Act----An arch Fiend, as principal Inſtigator, Dictator and Supporter of both Plots (evidently calculated to overturn the Britiſh Conſtitution of Government, and deprive the Subject of his Liberty) cloſed the Rear upon the Stages. To convince the Inhabitants that no Diſorder or ill Uſage were intended, the Front of their Lanthorns was inſcribed to Liberty, underneath which was wrote, The Lovely Unity. Having paraded the Streets thro' all Parts of the Town till Night, they quietly repaired to the ſeveral Places of Execution, where, after beheading the Effigies of the Pope and his Confederates, they committed their Bodies to the Flames.

Nov. 10. The following Letters from Mr. Agent De Berdt, directed to the Speaker of the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives, were received by Captain Blake.

SIR, London, Auguſt 6, 1766.

SINCE my laſt, I received a few Lines from Lord Dartmouth, in which he ſays, "I am ſorry to hear that the Aſſembly of Boſton have refuſed to make the Indemnification recommended by Parliament. New-York has complied."

"Had you been here, to be fully apprized of the long Debate in the Houſe your Friends ſupported, to obtain the Word Recommend, as a Term intirely conſiſtent with your Liberty, it muſt have left a grateful Impreſſion on your Minds, which your Addreſs, preſented to his Majeſty by the Duke of Richmond, is ſo full of, both to the King and Parliament, that I can hardly believe you ſhould come to ſuch a Reſolution. If the Report be a Slander on the Province, I ſhall be glad if you will put it in my Power to refute it, as I am ambitious your Aſſembly, who I have the Honour to be employed by, ſhould ſtand high in the Eſteem of the King, Miniſtry and Parliament, as well as in the Eſteem of all the real Friends of America, which ſuch a Refuſal will abate. Sir, Your faithful and obedient Servant,

DENNYS DE BERDT."

SIR, London, September 19, 1766.

SINCE my laſt to you, I have received ſeveral Letters from your Friends, in Anſwer to your Vote of Thanks, which I herewith incloſe, and by the univerſal Approbation it has met with, proves it a very well judged Meaſure; and Lord Cheſterfield, and the old Speaker Onſlow, both whoſe Hearts were warm in your Cauſe, were particulary pleaſed, and the latter deſired me to aſſure your Houſe, he eſteemed it the higheſt Honour could be conferred on him.

"I have Yeſterday waited on Lord Shelburne, our new Secretary of State, and his Lordſhip expreſſed himſelf to me in ſuch Terms as gave me great Satisfaction, and deſired me to aſſure the Houſe, he had the higheſt Regard for America, wiſhed their Proſperity, and would make it his Care to promote it: That you might be perfectly eaſy about the Enjoyment of your juſt Rights and Privileges under the preſent Adminiſtration. But, on the other Hand, the Dignity of Government muſt be maintained, as well as a due Regard to the Adminiſtration here; which I aſſured him was their real Diſpoſition, as was manifeſt by the Tenor of all their Addreſſes, two of which came through my Hands, Yours, and from the Lower Counties of Pennſylvania.

"He deſired you would finiſh the Affair of the Damages ſuſtained, becauſe it gave Occaſion to your, and the Enemies of the Adminiſtration, to upbraid them for the gentle Meaſures they adopted; on the other Hand, he had alſo wrote to every Governor on the Continent, to behave with Temper and Moderation, to the ſeveral Provinces over which they preſide; and he had wrote to your Governor in particular, to purſue healing Meaſures; and was ſo condeſcending to offer ſhewing me Copies of his Letter the next Time I waited on him, and added, that whatever new Governors were appointed for the future, Care would be taken to ſend ſuch Men as ſhould act upon the moſt generous Principles, and thereby ſecure the Affections of the People.

"This his Lordſhip declared with a generous Frankneſs and Openneſs, which loſes a great deal of its native Beauty by the imperfect Repreſentation of, Sir,

Your obedient humble Servant, DENNYS DE BERDT."

NEW-YORK, November 13.

The SPEECH of his Excellency Sir HENRY MOORE, Baronet, Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over the Province of New-York, and the Territories depending thereon in America, Vice-Admiral, and Chancellor of the ſame, to the Council and General Aſſembly of the ſaid Province.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

THE Meeting of the General Aſſembly has been delayed beyond the uſual Time, as I was in daily Expectation of receiving His Majeſty's Commands, in Regard to an humble Repreſentation made of the Diſtreſs into which this Colony would ſhortly be involved, through the Want of a ſufficient Paper Currency. And it is with the greateſt Satisfaction, that I can open this Seſſion with a freſh Inſtance of His Majeſty's paternal Regard and Protection extended to this Province, who has been graciouſly pleaſed, under certain Reſtrictions, to revoke that Inſtruction, by which the Commander in Chief here was precluded from giving his Aſſent to any Act which ſhould be framed for ſtriking Bills of Credit, and iſſuing the ſame in Lieu of Money. The Royal Attention ſo conſtantly paid to the Sufferings of the People, and the late Examples given of it, are ſuch ſignal Inſtances of His Majeſty's Condeſcenſion and Tenderneſs of their Intereſts, as cannot fail of exciting the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude in the Minds of every Subject, and be productive of the higheſt Returns of Duty and Submiſſion.

Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

The great Expence in which this Colony has been engaged for ſome Time paſt, and the Difficulties which ſtill ſubſiſts in Regard to Limits between this and the neighbouring Provinces of Maſſachuſetts and the Jerſeys, have engaged me to aſcertain, as ſoon as poſſible, the Line which His Majeſty has been pleaſed to fix by His Royal Proclamation for the Boundary between this Province and Quebec. And after the neceſſary Supplies of Government are raiſed, I muſt recommend it to the General Aſſembly to make Proviſion for the farther opening and continuing this Line, in which I flatter myſelf that the Province of Quebec, equally intereſted in it, will readily contribute; as a mutual Benefit will be derived from it. I muſt at the ſame Time earneſtly requeſt, that proper Meaſures may be taken to ſettle the Boundaries between the different Counties in this Province, and fix them by Authority: The Want of a due Attention to ſo neceſſary a Service, has already given riſe to many Inconveniences, and the continual Scenes of Litigation and Diſorder, occaſioned by vague and undetermined Limits, call for Redreſs in the ſtrongeſt Terms.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

I ſhall, during the Courſe of your Seſſion, take Opportunities of laying before you ſome Matters which have occured to me, during the late Tour I made; and recommending to your Conſideration whatever may be conducive to the Public Service; as I am fully perſuaded that the Legiſlative Bodies will chearfully co-operate with me in whatever can be propoſed for His Majeſty's Service, and the Good of their Country.

New-York, November 10, 1766. H. MOORE.

November 17. It appears by the Quebec papers, that the Receiver General demands for his Majeſty's uſe, among other dues, thoſe of the 5th penny, alienation fines, and arrears of quitrents, which became due to his Majeſty ſince the conqueſt of that colony----And all perſons indebted for thoſe dues, on eſtates dependent of the King's domain, purchaſed by them ſince the conqueſt, or for quitrents, or arrears of quitrents, are acquainted, that if they give in their declarations thereof in a limited time, they will be allowed a cuſtomary abatement, which otherwiſe will not be allowed them.

Alſo, that the Lords of the Committee of Council for Plantation Affairs, having reported that certain revenues raiſed in that colony, while it was under the dominion of the French King, if continued, would probably raiſe more than ſufficient to defray the expences of the civil government of the ſaid colony, and that all the duties payable to the French King before the conqueſt and ceſſion, are now moſt certainly due, payable to, and veſted in his Majeſty, by right of conqueſt, and law: And his Majeſty in council having approved the ſaid report, by his order to the Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, had tranſmitted inſtructions to the Receiver General and Collector of the revenues in the province of Quebec, to receive, collect and apply to defray the Charges of civil government, all ſuch duties and revenues as were collected while under the dominion of the French King, among which are the following, viz. on wine by the hogſhead, ſterling money, 10s. Rum, by the hogſhead, 20s. Brandy of all kinds, from all ports, for the velt, or 2 gallons, 1s. Ordinary wine per bottle, one halfpenny. Sweet ditto, one penny halfpenny. Eau de vil liqueur, per gallon, 5s. Dry goods imported, 3 per cent. on their valuation. Ditto exported, the ſame. But the Receiver General has inſtructions from his Majeſty, for the preſent, to diſpenſe with the duties upon dry goods, imported or exported, and to receive for the duty on Britiſh brandy only 4d. ſterling per gallon.

Captain Marſhall, in 36 days from Londonderry, ſailed in company with Captain Hamilton, in the ſhip Jupiter, for this port; and the brig Diana, Captain Morriſon, for Philadelphia.

We hear there will be no money emitted this Seſſion of Aſſembly; the reſtrictions being ſuch, that our Governor, by his orders, cannot give his aſſent to any money bill, unleſs it contains a clauſe, by which it cannot be of force until his Majeſty gives his aſſent to the ſame.

PHILADELPHIA, November 20.

The South-Carolina Gazette, of the 27th of laſt Month, affords us the following pleaſing Intelligence, viz. "That every "Thing was quiet, and went on well at the Ilinois, where the "Trade for Furrs, Skins, &c. was great, beyond Conception." This is great and intereſting News to all the Engliſh Colonies on this Continent, as now we have the higheſt Reaſon to conclude, that a Permanent Peace has been made with the numerous Tribes of Indians, to the Weſtward of us.

By Captain Jenkins, from St. Euſtatia, we learn, that in the late Gale there, on the 6th of laſt Month, a Schooner, belonging to St. Chriſtophers, and a Sloop belonging to ſome of the Iſlands, were both loſt: That a Brig belonging to New London, bound for Martinico, with Cattle and Horſes, having loſt her Maſts at Sea ſome time before, arrived at St. Euſtatia about the 3d or 4th ult. and during the Gale, a French Schooner, loaded with Sugars, and another Veſſel, ſuppoſed to be a Sloop, drove on board her, and ſunk under her Bows; the Schooner's People got on board the Brig, but the other Veſſel's Crew all periſhed: That a French Brig put out to Sea, without Anchor or Cable, and was afterwards loſt on Tortola: That Captain Devonſhire, in a Brig belonging to this Port, put out to Sea, and was ſafe arrived again; and Captain Hood, alſo of this port, put out and arrived at Anguilla: That Captain Price's Sloop (belonging to Norfolk in Virginia) put out from Nevis, and many of thoſe that left St Euſtatia in the Gale, were not returned on the 21ſt of October: That at Guadaloupe, a Sloop belonging to New-London, and ſeveral other Veſſels unknown, were loſt; and all the Vegetables, with every thing green on that Iſland, were ſaid to be entirely deſtroyed.----On the 5th Inſtant, in Lat. 33, Long. 73, Captain Jenkins ſpoke with Captain Doubleday, in a Schooner, from St. Croix for Boſton, out 13 Days.

Friday laſt Captain Blewer arrived here from St. Thomas's, being obliged to put to Sea from Baſſetterre-Road, in St. Chriſtophers, on the 6th ult. having loſt both his Anchors and Cables, and two Boats, ſprung his Maſt, and received other Damage; he informs, that a Brig belonging to, and bound for, Maryland from Antigua, put into St. Croix in Diſtreſs, having loſt both her Maſts; as did alſo, Captain Simmonds, belonging to Rhode-Iſland, who had loſt his Boltſprit, and all his Sails: That the Sloop Nancy, Captain Horley, from Ocracock for Tortola, was loſt at St. John's Iſland, the People all ſaved: And that Captain Champlain, in a Schooner, belonging to Antigua, had got into St. Thomas's, having loſt both his Maſts.---On the 7th Inſtant, about 40 Leagues from our Capes, he ſpoke a Snow, Captain Patterſon, from Liverpool for Ocracock, all well.

Captain Eaſtwick, from South-Carolina, on the 8th Inſtant, in Lat. 32: 26, ſpoke a Ship, Captain Mitchell, from Liverpool for Charleſtown, out 44 Days; and on the 10th, in Lat. 34: 35, he ſpoke a Snow from Cape Fear for the Grenades, all well in both Veſſels.

The Captains Marſhall and Alliſon, from this Port, are both arrived at Antigua.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

LONDON, Sept. 6.

WE are aſſured that a certain great perſonage, lately grown a little unpopular, has formed a moſt noble and patriotic ſcheme for the univerſal good of the nation, to which the Miniſtry have unanimouſly agreed.

Letters from Exeter inform, that there have been great diſturbances there on account of the exorbitant price of proviſions; but that at length the farmers having lowered the price of their corn, and the butchers their meat, all was quiet again.

September 9.

Saturday General Monckton had a horſe ſent him from Leith, in Scotland, which meaſures but 35 inches and a half.

We are informed a ſtate of the affairs of the Hudſon's Bay Company, is preparing to be laid before an auguſt Aſſembly.

There is a report that a great Perſon, lately come into power, intends to perfect what he began during the laſt war, but which the exigencies of the times obliged him then to deſiſt from, viz. the examination into all the ſinecures and uſeleſs officers in many public offices, in order, by ſtriking them off, to make a conſiderable ſaving to the nation.

The occaſion of the reſignation of a noble Lord, who was premier to a certain board, was not becauſe he was neglected to be ſummoned to council, as reported, but from a diſpute between the Earl of C------ and his Lordſhip, about ſome accounts, which aroſe very high. In conſequence of which, his Lordſhip next day went to reſign, which was then not accepted, his Lordſhip being deſired to take three days to conſider his intention; at the end whereof, his Lordſhip remaining in the ſame reſolution, his reſignation was then accepted: But in two days after, his Lordſhip altered his opinion, and would have reſumed his place, but was then told it was too late; and that there had been too many circumſtances of that ſort to be complied with any longer.

A letter from Norfolk, ſays, "If the poor are terrified in and about the metropolis, at the exportation of corn, where only a few ſhips are freighting with that commodity, what would they ſay if they were in this country, where nothing elſe ſeems to buſy the heads of all our dealers, than freighting away as faſt as poſſible all they can purchaſe? And all the waggons and horſes are buſied in carrying it to the ſea-ports."

In a new performance, it is aſſerted, that there are near ſeven millions of property inveſted in the Eaſt-India trade, an immenſe quantity of ſhipping employed, fleets and armies maintained, and that almoſt every man in theſe kingdoms finds himſelf affected by its proſperity, by relation, by connection, and a thouſand other combinations.

September 11.

Orders are given by the owners and freighters of veſſels in the corn-trade, to make the beſt of their way to the Downs, ſeveral of them with half cargoes only, for fear of an embargo.

Yeſterday morning the tranſports from the New-goal, Southwark, were ſent on board the Juſtitia, Capt. Somerville, at Blackwall, bound for Virginia.

Letters from Stockholm adviſe, that an examination was ordered to be immediately made into the conduct of the Secretary of State R----, the Preſident H----, and two Counſellors of the Chancery.

Letters from Germany adviſe, that the Imperial Court will formally cede, in the month of October next, to Prince Albert of Saxony, not only the dutchy of Teſchen, but alſo the lordſhips of Altenbourg and Mannerſuorf.

We are told by letters from Florence, that the Prince of Mecklenbourg, and other foreigners of the firſt rank, go frequently to dine with the Grand Duke and Dutcheſs at Poggio Imperiale. A cabinet courier was juſt ſet out for Vienna, with diſpatches ſaid to be of great importance.

On Wedneſday Lord Chief Juſtice Wilmot, Sir Charles Saunders, and Colonel Barre were, by his Majeſty's command, ſworn of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council.

Yeſterday Count Marſhall, and Count Roſamouſky, Generals in the Ruſſian ſervice, lately arrived in England, were introduced by the Ruſſian Ambaſſador to his Majeſty, and graciouſly received.

Extract of a Letter from Warſaw, Auguſt 17.

"We are informed, that when M. Alexandrowitz, Envoy Extraordinary from the King and the Republick to the Porte, had his audience of the Grand Signior, he teſtified to his Highneſs how much his Majeſty was diſpoſed to maintain the good underſtanding, cemented by the treaty of Carlowitz; and that to theſe aſſurances the Sultan anſwered, that in expectation of ſuch ſentiments on the part of the King and the Republick of Poland, he had, on his ſide, reſolved to adhere inviolably to the treaty of alliance and friendſhip concluded between the two courts. After which M. Alexandrowitz received the formalities due to his character, and was honourably reconducted to his Hotel in the ſuburb of Pera."

They write from Naples, that a Corſair of Tetuan, which has for ſome time paſt cruized on the coaſts of Sicily, was ſunk lately near Cape Paſſero, by a Sardinian Xebeque of war, after an engagement of three hours, during which the Mooriſh ſhip blew up.

N. B. As he is now determined to collect his outſtanding debts ſo long due, he thought it neceſſary to give this notice to ſuch as are indebted to him to make immediate payment, ſo as to prevent the diſagreeableneſs of putting their accounts into the hands of another perſon, which undoubtedly muſt be the caſe, unleſs they comply with this requeſt, ſo as to enable him to ſettle his affairs, being determined on going to Europe in the Spring.

The ſtore, known by the name of WADE and HEMPHILL's NEW STORE, in Wilmington, will be continued as uſual by William Hemphill, with a conſtant ſupply of goods, ſuitable for the country, and which their cuſtomers may depend ſhall be ſold at the ſame rates we at firſt ſet out with, and the higheſt prices given for their produce in caſh. We are now taking in flaxſeed and wheat at the Philadelphia prices; and as the road from Lancaſter county is 15 miles ſhorter to Wilmington than Philadelphia, and no ferriage, we hope it will be an inducement for the waggons to come that way with their loading, where they may depend on being ſupplied with rum, ſugar, ſalt, &c. at as low rates as they can poſſibly have them in Philadelphia, and ſerved with the utmoſt diſpatch.

By the Captains SINCLAIR and CHAMBERS, arrived at New-York from London, we have the following advices, viz.

ROME, Auguſt 30.

THE congregation of abundance having received information, that the dearneſs of corn is in a great meaſure occaſioned by large tracts of land being uncultivated, has made ſome regulations, by which the occupiers of farms will, for the future, be ſubject to very ſevere penalties for letting their land lie uncultivated, and proper perſons are appointed to look after, and report the defaulters. Premiums, and other advantages, are alſo allotted to thoſe who cultivate their land to the beſt advantage in the Campaina of Rome. To prevent the neighbouring inhabitants from drawing the corn out of this city, the gates are kept ſhut, and guarded, and the edict made in 1764 is renewed, which prohibits the carrying any bread out of the city, except black bread, for the uſe of labouring people; but, nevertheleſs, the neceſſary ſteps are taken to have the neighbours ſupplied with proviſions. Some peaſants lately ſeized a quantity of corn at Macerata, and ſold it by open force in the market place there, at a very low price.

Naples, Aug. 22. The government being informed that the grain harveſt has totally failed, in almoſt all the provinces of the kingdom, has juſt prohibited the exportation of corn, meal, or plate, under pain of death.

Florence, Aug. 23. The government hath taken ſuch effectual meaſures with regard to corn, that from this time till next year's harveſt, there will be no reaſon to fear a ſcarcity of it.

LONDON, September 20.

Yeſterday morning arrived the mail from France, and one of the mails due from Holland, by which we have the following advices.

By the laſt earthquake, which happened on the 5th of Auguſt, at Conſtantinople, 30 perſons were killed, and upwards of 100 wounded or maimed.

The Jews at Vienna, on account of the late tumults there, are forbid to appear in the ſtreets after 5 in the evening. Some of them, notwithſtanding, being ſeen abroad after that hour on Saturday, the 23d ult. were all immediately arreſted.

Letters from Leghorn ſay, that two Commiſſaries, one Engliſh, the other French, are arrived in Corſica, where, in the names of the Kings, their maſters, they have undertaken the office of mediators, between the Genoeſe and Paoliſts; and accordingly, to all appearance, will ſoon reconcile the two parties, and put the laſt hand to a treaty of accommodation between them.

Lord Briſtol is to kiſs hands for the Lieutenancy of Ireland on the 29th of this month, and is immediately to go and reſide in Dublin.

Lord Northumberland is to be Maſter of the Horſe, and it is thought will kiſs hands ſome day next week.

We are informed that Sir George Pocock reſigned ſolely on account of his ill ſtate of health; but it is whiſpered that Sir Edward Hawke is on the point of throwing up his employments from another motive.

In the ſpace of the laſt ſix years, there have been three Grooms of the Stole, five Firſt Lords of the Treaſury, eleven Secretaries of State, five Firſt Lords of the Admiralty, five of Trade, and above ninety other changes at the other principal boards; ſo fluctuating have been the Councils of this nation.

Lord B---hath never appeared at Court nor St. James's ſince the late change in the Miniſtry; but his Lordſhip's viſits have been frequent at the Queen's Palace, where, it is ſaid, he has all along concerted with the Miniſtry the meaſures of adminiſtration, in the abſence (through indiſpoſition) of the Earl of Chatham, and with whom, and there, he alſo ſeveral times conſulted, before his (the latter noble Lord's) confinement at North-End.

It is reported, and, from ſome late circumſtances, with a probability of truth, that a reconciliation between the Earl of C. and Earl T. will ſoon take place; the mediation of which is to be attributed to a noble Duke, whoſe principal ſhare in the negociation of the late peace, cauſed the greateſt political animoſity between his Grace and the now E. of C---.Beſides this renewal of friendſhip between the two noble brothers, the ſubſiding of the differences of our patriot and this powerful nobleman, now mediator, cannot fail of giving the greateſt ſtability to his adminiſtration, of which his Grace, it is ſaid, will preſide in the higheſt department.

It is remoured that the Chancellor of the Exchequer hath ſtrongly diſapproved of ſome of the Earl of C-----'s plans, relative to raiſing the funds for the ſervice of the next year.

We are told, that the propoſal (ſaid to be the late great Commoner's) to diſſolve the preſent parliament at the end of the next ſeſſion, has already cauſed great heat, animoſity, and oppoſition amongſt ſome of the noble and Right Hon. perſonages at the helm.

We are now told that it can not be true that "the Earl of Chatham has written to the Privy Council, recommending the iſſuing a proclamation for an immediate prohibition of the exportation of corn, and declaring that he would avow the adviſal, and abide by the conſequences;" becauſe it is apprehended that noble Lord is too well verſed in our laws and conſtitutions, to adviſe a ſtep ſo palpably illegal and unconſtitutional, as not having the ſanction of an act of parliament; and alſo as no perſon, it is preſumed, would be bound to obey a proclamation not compatible with the ſpirit of our conſtitution, nor expreſly authorized by ſome exiſting ſtatute. It is with pain we make this obſervation, becauſe we ſincerely lament the force of it in the caſe before us.

Yeſterday the Earl and Counteſs of Chatham ſet out from their houſe in Bond-ſtreet, for recovery of his Lordſhip's health.

His Serene Highneſs the Prince of Brunſwic will not make ſo extenſive a tour as he firſt propoſed, an expreſs being arrived with an account of his intentions to be in England before the expiration of the enſuing month. The Prince's ſudden determination for returning ſo ſoon, gives room for various conjectures.

Mr. Secretary Conway, in abſence of the Lords Preſident and Privy Seal, now ſits as Preſident of the Council, being the oldeſt Secretary of State.

It is ſaid there are near one hundred and twenty ſhips loaded with wheat now in the river Thames.

There is only one circumſtance in our favour, to prevent all the corn in the kingdom from being exported; which is, that it cannot be threſhed before the parliament meets, who will probably carry the bill through, for ſtopping the exportation, in four days after they have met.

Sept. 22. An evening paper of Saturday ſays, that on that day an embargo was laid on all ſhips laden with wheat, and expreſſes were immediately diſpatched to all ports on the occaſion.---If this was done on Saturday, why not inſerted in the gazette?

We hear that a council is ordered to meet on Wedneſday next, on matters of the higheſt importance; and it is imagined that the preſent diſtreſs, ariſing from the exceſſive price of corn, will be the chief object of their deliberation.

We hear that Lord C-----m is fully determined to intereſt himſelf, in the moſt effectual manner, on behalf of the poor, not only with reſpect to the lowering the price of proviſions, but likewiſe by deviſing ſome new plans for employing them; a thing, comparatively ſpeaking, of infinitely greater conſequence than the former.

The ſcheme for diſſolving the parliament next ſeſſion, is the Earl of C-----m's, but the Ch-----r of the E-----r highly diſapproves of it.

Orders are given for a party of life guards, and horſe grenadier guards, to hold themſelves in readineſs, to eſcort her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Caroline Matilda to Harwich.

Saturday the picture of the Right Hon. Henry Seymour Conway, Eſq; was finiſhed, and is to be ſent, as a preſent from him, to the merchants at Halifax, in North-America.

Private letters from Leghorn adviſe, that the terms offered by the Corſicans, towards an accommodation with the Genoeſe, were the payment of a certain annual revenue to the republic, a total evacuation of the French auxiliary troops, the ports of the iſland to remain free, and the Paoliſts to be governed by their own chief and laws.

They write from Turin, that the King of Sardinia had iſſued orders to prevent the exportation of corn from that iſland.

Several veſſels are now contracting for in the river, to import corn from the American colonies.

We learn from Somerſetſhire, that in the preſent dearneſs of corn, the wheat of the Earl of Chatham is delivered out at Burton Pynſent, to the adjacent pariſhes, at ſeven ſhillings the buſhel, Somerton meaſure, being twelve gallons to the buſhel.

We hear that the farmers have been obliged to lower the price of corn twenty-pence per buſhel, at Barnſtaple, in Devonſhire, to avoid the reſentment of the mob, who had threatened to ſeize all brought to market, at their own price.

Grievous are the complaints of the poor in every part of the kingdom, on account of the extravagant price of proviſions of all ſorts. Every poſt brings freſh accounts of tumult, occaſioned principally by the high price of bread. On Tueſday laſt the populace roſe, in great numbers, at Saliſbury, and, it is ſaid, tore down one of the mills, and deſtroyed great quantities of corn, which was ſuſpected to have been intended for exportation.

We hear from Biceſter, in Oxfordſhire, that Sir Edward Turner has given orders for all his wheat to be threſhed out as faſt as poſſible, and to be ſold there in ſmall parcels (as the induſtrious labourer, workmen, and poor perſons, may have occaſion to buy) after the rate of one ſhilling by the buſhel cheaper than the preſent exorbitant market price. And we are alſo informed, that the abovementioned gentleman having prevailed with ſeveral, intends to uſe proper influence to induce all his tenants to follow an example ſo worthy imitation, during theſe diſtreſſing times.

Sept. 25. We hear, to the honour of our preſent worthy chief Magiſtrate, that, on account of the dearneſs of proviſions, he has conſtantly refuſed to accept any commiſſion for buying corn for exportation, preferring the public good to his own private intereſt.

Extract of a letter from Wiltſhire, September 21.

"We have nothing but inſurrections of the poor for bread, who are burning and pulling down the mills of thoſe, whom they know to be concerned in ſending meal to Briſtol for exportation, a term become as ſhocking as that of a bounty given to ſtarve the poor. Wheat at Warminſter is now at twelve ſhillings a buſhel, large meaſure, nine ſhillings ſmall, and thirty-ſix ſhillings a ſack or bag.

"Mr. P. yeſterday endeavoured to diſperſe the poor aſſembled at the mill near him at B-----, by entreaties, and offering them money, which they refuſed, declaring they wanted not that, but bread for their children, at a reaſonable price.

"Being fired at from the mill, ſome innocent people were killed (who were only by-ſtanders) and others wounded; on which they ſet fire to the mill, left the miller for dead, and killed one of Mr. P's tenants who aſſiſted him. They pulled to pieces another mill near Weſtbury, the miller eſcaping by being from home. They touch no mills but ſuch as deal to their oppreſſion, and carry off nothing; no plundering as yet. God only knows where it will end.

"If the ſea-ports are not intimidated by this from carrying out the corn, famine muſt enſue.

"At Saliſbury they pulled down the mill laſt Tueſday, obliged the farmers to ſell wheat at 5s. 6d. per buſhel, which they have done in plenty every day ſince, and butter at 7d. per pound.

"Warminſter is threatened to be ſeverely viſited this day. Hinden was attempted laſt Thurſday; there being no corn or farmers in the market, they are threatened to be viſited at home.

"I juſt now hear, that at Shaftſbury wheat is at 40s. per ſack; and this day, in this pariſh, we paid the miller 43s. per ſack for flour. Heaven avert the judgments which hang over us, from our own infatuation of not ſtopping the importation. It is ſhocking to hear, even of the few that have been killed and wounded about us; but if famine happens, and peſtilence follows, good God! what is that to the thouſands and ten thouſands who will then periſh."

Extract of a letter from an Engliſh Traveller at Rome, dated September 5, 1766.

"This country labours, at preſent, under the calamity of a very unprecedented ſcarcity of corn; partly occaſioned by the harveſt having failed, and partly by want of foreſight in thoſe whoſe buſineſs it was to regard ſuch matters.

"It is fortunate, however, that the harveſt has not failed in England, Spain and other places, or thouſands muſt have periſhed."

Her Royal Highneſs Princeſs Caroline Matilda will be married by proxy, on Wedneſday next, at the Chapel Royal at St. James's.

Sept. 26. We hear that in a committee of his Majeſty's Privy Council, which ſat late on Wedneſday evening, the Lords were of opinion, that it would be adviſeable to lay an embargo on all ſhips loaded with wheat or flour; and that the neceſſary orders will be immediately iſſued for that purpoſe.

It is aſſerted that the numbers of ſhips lately mentioned in ſome of the papers to have been freighted with corn for exportation, has been greatly exaggerated; and that the following are facts. Since the 26th of Auguſt laſt, five ſhips have been cleared, with 5255 quarters of wheat, and 100 barrels of flour; three more ſhips are nearly laden, and may take about 3600 quarters of wheat, and 700 barrels of flour; in all about 8855 quarters of wheat, and 800 barrels of flour, by all the corn-factors of the port of London.

Wedneſday they began to lay down the keel of a new 74 gun ſhip, in the room of that launched from the ſtocks a few days ago at Deptford.

Yeſterdy expreſſes were ſent off to Briſtol, and ſeveral of the out-ports, ſuppoſed to contain orders for laying an immediate embargo on corn ſhips.

Sept. 27. The embargo on all corn ſhips, may juſtly be deemed a very timely and fortunate circumſtance for the people of this kingdom; for by the laſt letters received from Italy, all agree, that the corn has failed this year almoſt every where; particularly in Ruſſia, Turkey, France, Spain, Portugal, and all over Italy, except the Sicilies, and there the corn runs thin as in England; and that the Turks have felt the ſcarcity ſo much, as to order their galleys to ſeize on all corn ſhips wherever they can find them. That the orders are unlimited as to price, which muſt be a great temptation to accept; for one gentleman, ſome time ſince, bought up corn to the amount of 2000l. for exportation, by which he got 4000l.

It is ſaid that the Earl of Halifax has been applied to, to name the terms on which he would come in to the aid of the preſent adminiſtration.

It has been reported that the embaſſy of Spain has been offered, attended with ſome peculiar emoluments, to the Earl of Sandwich.

Baſſeterre, in St. Chriſtophers, October 15.

We hear that ſeveral veſſels, during the late gale of wind, were forced from their anchors in the road of Plymouth, Montſerrat, and not being able to weather the ſtorm, were drove aſhore and wrecked on the windward ſide of Nevis.

On Sunday laſt arrived in the road the ſchooner Diamond, Captain Crawford, who tells us, that in latitude 32 deg. 25 min. N. and longitude 53 deg. 30 min. W. he met with a very heavy gale of wind, which carried away one of his maſts, and laid the veſſel on her broadſide, in which ſituation ſhe continued for ſome time, till, by the aſſiſtance of a brig from Liverpool, ſhe was righted. Captain Crawford likewiſe tells us that he fell in with ſeveral veſſels in diſtreſs, but was not able to give them any aſſiſtance.

October 18. We hear from Santa Croix that great damage has been done there in the late bad weather, and that moſt of the veſſels there were drove aſhore and loſt.

It is reported that the ſloop Edward, Captain Painter, who left this road at the beginning of the late winds, has been loſt at ſea, and every perſon on board periſhed, except a foremaſt man, who was taken up by a veſſel, and brought to Nevis.

October 22. By the laſt advices from Dominica we learn, that on Wedneſday the 17th ult. they had a very hard gale of wind from the S. E. accompanied with a remarkable heavy ground ſwell, which continued till near Thurſday noon, and obliged ſeveral veſſels in the road to put to ſea; which, however, returned all ſafe into Prince Rupert's Bay. The ſame accounts add, that, on the Friday following, they had two ſmart ſhocks of an earthquake, which happily did no damage. But letters of a later date from the ſaid iſland mention, that when we had the laſt bad weather here, the ſhip Phœnix, Captain Knight, from the Coaſt of Africa, and three other veſſels, were drove aſhore and loſt in the bay of Roſeau.

Our accounts from Guadaloupe and Marigallante, are much more dreadful than thoſe from Dominica; in the former of which iſlands no leſs than fifty-one veſſels were wrecked, and in the latter ſeven.

October 29. We hear from Martinico, that 5000 regulars are expected there every day from Old France. This piece of news, joined to the extraordinary diligence uſed by the court of Verſailles for the re-eſtabliſhment of her marine, proves almoſt to a demonſtration that the French harbour no good deſigns towards Great-Britain, let their pretences to the contrary be what they will.

ROSEAU (Dominica) October 15.

The hard gale of wind, as mentioned in the gazette, was ſeverely felt at Guadaloupe, where upwards of fifty ſail of veſſels are drove aſhore and loſt; among which are the packet-boat, and a large ſhip belonging to Nants, laden with 600 hogſheads of ſugar, beſides cotton, &c. the plantations have ſuffered much, and many ſmall houſes near the river were waſhed away with all their furniture, and the current was ſo rapid that the inhabitants had hardly time to eſcape. We have as yet received no farther particulars; but we are informed that conſiderable damage is done at Marigallante.

St. JOHN's (in Antigua) October 22.

By a gentleman of credit, arrived yeſterday from Dominica, we are aſſured that 50 ſail of veſſels were loſt in the ſtorm of the 6th inſt. at Guadaloupe. And from Montſerrat we have accounts, that their proviſions and many pieces of canes are deſtroyed; that ſeveral of the houſes in Plymouth town are abandoned, the people not daring to live in them through fear of ſuffering by the falling waters, and that the damage done that iſland by the late bad weather, was computed to amount to ſeveral thouſand pounds.

Letters from St. Vincent's mention their having ſuffered in the general calamity; Governor Ottley, Col. Young, and other gentlemen, having their flouriſhing canes laid intirely flat and ruined, beſides other miſchief ſuſtained by the tempeſt.

Kingſton, in Jamaica, October 11.

Copy of a letter from Savanna-la-Mar, October 6, 1766.

"Yeſterday afternoon, about four o'clock, a rebellion broke out at Croſs-path, within three miles of this place. Doctor Lock's new Coromantee negroes began firſt, and were ſoon joined by Mr. Wedderburn's, and then by ſome of Mr. Lewis's; they killed at Croſs-path a diſtiller belonging to Sweet-river, after that the book-keeper of Black-moraſs, and wounded a white woman ſo deſperately, that it is impoſſible for her to recover. They have alſo killed ſeveral negroes and children, but have not damaged any houſe, except the hot-houſe on Black-moraſs. There are ten parties out after them. I am, &c."

Tueſday ſailed for England his Majeſty's ſhip the Dreadnought, Admiral Sir Wm. Burnaby, he being relieved by Admiral Parry.

October 18. Yeſterday the wind blew exceſſive hard, and occaſioned a great ſwell of the ſea, ſo that ſeveral veſſels drove from their moorings, and went on ſhore, and others loſt their maſts, yards, anchors, &c. Several ſmall craft were wrecked. The ſtorm began about nine o'clock in the morning, and continued blowing when this paper went to preſs, ſo that we may expect to hear of conſiderable damage.

The Plumper, Captain Brown, is aſhore between Kingſton and Greenwich.

We hear from Weſtmoreland, that the inſurrection among the negroes is not yet entirely quelled; but that ſeveral of the ring-leaders have been burnt, and others hanged.

BOSTON, November 13.

Monday night laſt, the wind being very high, a ſmall veſſel, laden with bricks, belonging to Medford, and having two men on board, foundered off the entrance of Marblehead harbour, whereby the men were drowned, and the veſſel loſt.

By Captain Blake we learn, that there having been a ſubſcription opened in London for the relief of the ſufferers by the late fire at Barbados, they had collected, by the 11th of September, 7211l. for that charitable deſign; and as the ſubſcription was ſtill open, ſeveral large donations were expected from many opulent corporations in England, as ſoon as they met.---The general loſs of the Barbadians, as tranſmitted home, amounted to 300,000l.

PROVIDENCE, November 15.

By Mr. Thomas Jackſon, a Mariner on board the Sloop Mary, Zachariah Allen, Maſter, who ſailed from this Port the 20th of Auguſt laſt, for Guadaloupe, where he arrived the 16th of September following, but in a Gale of Wind was drove out the ſame Night, and arrived again at Baſſeterre the 1ſt of October, we have the following Intelligence:-- That on the 6th of October, about Noon, the Wind began to blow hard at Weſt, and towards Evening hauled round Southerly, continually increaſing: A large Number of Veſſels were lying at Baſſeterre, many of which had their Sails unbent, and otherwiſe wholly unprovided againſt the Storm: Theſe were obliged to endeavour to ride it out, others better prepared, thought beſt to put to Sea; among the latter was Captain Allen, he weighed one Anchor, and ſlipped the other (which he could not weigh) and endeavoured to make ſome little Sail, to clear the Land, if poſſible, but ſo great was the Violence of the Winds, that his Sails were blown away as faſt as they were hoiſted, and nothing remained, but to lie entirely at the Mercy of the Winds and Waves to throw them on the Shore. Captain Allen, as well as the Darkneſs of the Night would permit, choſe the eaſieſt Place to lay her in, and about Midnight ſhe ſtruck upon the Strand, at Capeſterre, about 18 Miles from Baſſeterre:---The Sea now broke over them continually, and through the Darkneſs of the Night they could not tell their Diſtance from the Land; but as their Hopes were only from Deſpair, the Captain propoſed to endeavour to get on Shore (they had before loſt their Boat) and tying a Rope round his Waiſt, giving the Signals he ſhould make, threw himſelf overboard:---After a conſiderable Time, when his Men had almoſt given him over for loſt, they perceived the wiſhed for Signal---that he got ſafe on Shore; they on board immediately made faſt one End of the Rope, and the Captain on Shore held the other, and by that Clew they all got ſafe to Land.----Two Veſſels only rode it out, one a French Snow, the other a Marblehead Schooner, --------- Weſt, Maſter.----Mr. Jackſon further ſays, That on the 12th he came to Baſſeterre, and was there informed, that 36 Veſſels were on Shore, 18 of which were Engliſh, to what Ports they belonged he did not learn;---that it was thought ſome would be got off again, but ſeveral went entirely to Pieces, among which were a Spaniſh Sloop, and a Ship juſt ready to ſail for Old France, with 1100 Hogſheads of Sugar on board.

A Gentleman who came to Town a few Days ago from Salem, informs, that Captain Elkins, who arrived there juſt before he came away, in 27 Days from Guadaloupe, but laſt from St. Euſtatia in 20 Days, brings a lamentable Account of the fatal Effects of a violent Hurricane in many Iſlands in the Weſt-Indies, which began on the 6th of October; particularly at Guadaloupe, St. Euſtatia, St. Kitts and Nevis, where both Shipping and Plantations ſuffered greatly; and it was generally believed this Hurricane reached all the neighbouring Iſlands. In a ſhort Account relative to the Shipping, brought by this Gentleman, we find, beſides Captain Allen's Veſſel, of this Port, that the Brig --------, Chapel, from Boſton, or New-London; Brig -------, Orne, from Salem; Sloop -------, Blaſdell, from Old-York; a Packet from Barbados; Brig -------, Whipple, from Newbury; and the Schooner -------, Parſons, from Portſmouth, were drove aſhore, and the Veſſels and Cargoes loſt, at Guadaloupe.----That the Brig --------, Dowſe, from Boſton; Schooner ------, Kent, from Newbury; a Veſſel from Glouceſter, Elwell, Maſter, were drove aſhore and loſt at Nevis.

NEW-YORK.

Nov. 24. Captain Sinclair ſpoke with the following veſſels on his paſſage, viz. The 9th of October, in lat. 45:47, long. 21:58, with James Henderſon, in a brig from Penſacola, bound for London; the 18th following, in lat. 44:34, long. 38:30, with Captain Benſon, in a brig from Biddeford, for Piſcataqua, 6 weeks out. The 11th inſtant, in lat. 39:20, long. 73:50, with a ſloop from Rhode-Iſland, for the Grenades; and the 14th following, with a brig from Virginia for this place.

Captain Dixon, from Sligo, ſpoke with the following veſſels on his paſſage, viz. The 22d of October, long. 33, with a ſhip from Glaſgow, for Boſton, Robert Montgomery, maſter; the next day, with a ſnow, Captain Andrew, from South-Carolina, for Briſtol; the 4th inſt. with a brig from this port for Ireland; and laſt Tueſday with a ſloop from Philadelphia, for the Weſt-Indies, only one day out, and all well.

The 15th of October, the ſloop Seaflower, Stephen Emery, Maſter, from this port, run upon the rocks to the eaſtward of Red-Iſland, about 40 leagues below Quebec, where the veſſel and cargoe were entirely loſt; the crew, with great difficulty, got aſhore on Red-Iſland, and remained there 48 hours, ſuffering much from the inclemency of the weather, as they were loſt in a ſnow ſtorm, which continued three days.

Captain Stevenſon, in 23 days from Antigua, the 25th of October, lat. 23: 12, ſpoke with Captain Cooper, from Virginia for Antigua, 12 days out, and all well.

Captain M'Connell, in 7 weeks from Liverpool, three days after he came out, ſpoke with an Algerine Corſair, only 40 leagues from Scilly, on a cruize; a brig ſailed from Liverpool 14 days before Captain M'Connell, for Philadelphia; and Captain Deane, for this port, much about the ſame time.

We hear Captain Parker, from this port, is arrived at London, but the Minerva, Tillett, from this port, was not arrived the 28th of September.

By a letter from St. Euſtatia, dated October 17th, we are informed that they have lately had a gale of wind there, more violent than has been known ſince the year 1747. It began at midnight, on Monday the 6th of October, at E. N. E. attended with a ſmall ſhock of an earthquake, and increaſed till 5 in the morning, when ſhifting to S. moſt of the veſſels were obliged to ſlip, and ſeek for ſafety at ſea. Thoſe that did not weigh before the height of the gale, were obliged to part from their cables. Many veſſels that had been laid up during the hurricane months, and thought all the danger over, had come there to be employed, and ſhared the ſame fate with the reſt; ſome foundered at their anchors, others drove to ſea, without any body on board, ſome with one, ſome with two, three, or four perſons to navigate them.

At ſix o'clock on the morning of the 7th, a ſchooner belonging to St. Kitts, a Spaniſh ſloop, and a ſmall boat that had driven from Nevis, were caſt aſhore, and muſt be loſt---the people got ſafe on ſhore. Before day, one Dutch and 2 French veſſels, foundered at their anchors; ſome ſmall craft drove out to ſea, without any body on board, and in the forenoon, about eleven o'clock, on the 7th, a brig, belonging to Leith, in Scotland, Captain Robinſon, was alſo driven from her anchors to ſea. This Brig, on the 21ſt of September, in lat. 4, and odd, was diſmaſted, and in endeavouring to make ſome harbour, fell to leeward of the iſland, was towed in about ſix hours before the ſtorm began, and when ſhe was driven from her anchors, had not a maſt on board, nor a ſail, except a top gallant ſail. The ſafety of this veſſel is much doubted.

A brig, Captain Lafinwell, of New-London, was diſmaſted at the ſame time as Captain Robinſon, and miraculouſly eſcaped being caſt away: His brig, though ſhe tailed in the breakers, rode out the gale, as well as Captain Campbell, of Boſton.

All that day, Tueſday, the 7th of October, there was a tremendous ſea in the bay, and the weather ſtill looked with a terrible aſpect.

In the interior parts of the iſland, great damage was done to the proviſion grounds, moſt of the Maniokite (Caſada) great and ſmall corn, is deſtroyed; canes that were on Monday remarkably promiſing, then lay even with the ground. Large tamarind trees, as thick as a man's body, were torn up by the roots, fences, and many thatched houſes, levelled with the ground; many perſons were obliged to leave their houſes, and ſeek for ſafety in thoſe that were built low; in ſhort, that ſuch a ſcene of horror might be better conceived than deſcribed.

It was greatly feared, that many veſſels in other places had ſuffered by the late ſtorms, as that of the 21ſt of Sept. was felt from the lat. 14, to 40.

Extract of a letter from London, Sept. 19, 1766.

"Notwithſtanding the many unmanly and illnatured reflections, in pamphlets and news-papers, upon a late Right Hon. Commoner, propagated ſolely by the artifices of ſome deſigning courtiers, that great man ſtill retains the confidence of the people in general, who doubt not that he will ſhine with redoubled luſtre, when the cauſe of liberty, or the Britiſh honour demand his councils."

We are credibly informed, that orders have been lately tranſmitted from the other ſide of the Atlantic, that the ſtricteſt enquiry ſhould be made into that cruel piece of villainy lately committed on Mr. Walker, at Montreal; and that ſhould the perpetrators be diſcovered, they would inevitably meet with their deſerts.

PHILADELPHIA, November 27.

Sunday laſt Captain Allibone arrived here from St. Croix, and adviſes, that a Ship was arrived at St. Thomas's; a Schooner at St. John's, and a ſmall Veſſel at Tortola, having all of them loſt their Maſts in the late hard Gales of Wind: That ſix or ſeven Veſſels, from St. Euſtatia, St. Kitts, &c. had put into St. Croix, having ſome loſt their Anchors, ſome had their Sails ſplit to Pieces, and ſome loſt their Maſts: And that a Brig belonging to St. Euſtatia was caſt away on the Virgin Iſlands. On the 13th Inſtant, about 45 Leagues E. S. E. from our Capes, he ſpoke the Ship Hamilton, Captain Eyres, from this Port for Cadiz, all well.

Captain Weſt, from Jamaica, ſailed in Company with Captain Alboy, for New-York, and parted with him on the 11th Inſtant, in Lat. 31: 30, Long. 74: 30, all well.

Captain Stephenſon, from Barbados, on the 15th Inſtant, in Lat. 37: 2, Long. 74: 18, ſpoke a Sloop, Captain M'Coy, from the Bay of Honduras for this Port, 40 Days out, all well.

Captain Belford, from St. Chriſtophers, on the 14th Inſtant, ſpoke the Snow Penn, Captain Harkies, off Chincoteague, bound to South-Carolina from New-York, all well.

By Captain Forſter, from the Grenades, we are informed, that on the 21ſt ult. about Four o'Clock in the Morning, they had a ſmart Shock of an Earthquake there, which laſted about three Minutes; that at Baſſeterre the Inhabitants were greatly alarmed, and ran out of their Houſes, expecting every Moment to be buried in their Ruins, but providentially they received no Damage in the Town; that at a Gentleman's Plantation, about ſix Miles from thence, the Dwelling-houſe, Sugar-houſe, and all the Outhouſes were entirely thrown down, but he did not hear of any Lives being loſt; and that the ſame was very ſenſibly felt on board the Shipping in the Harbour.

The above mentioned Earthquake was alſo felt at Barbados, but did not laſt ſo long as at the Grenades, and did no Damage.

Captain Laws, from London, on the 12th Inſtant, in Lat. 31: 30, Long. 72. ſpoke a Brig from London for South-Carolina, 7 Weeks out, all well.

By the Boſton Papers, ſeven Wrecks were ſeen aſhore at Anegada, by the Maſter of a Veſſel from St. Thomas's, ſince the late ſevere Gales of Wind in the Weſt-Indies.
